Meeting Minutes

Welcome and Opening Remarks

- Andrea is continuing her listening tour. Please schedule a time to speak with Andrea. Email Carrie at carrie.crompton8@gmail.com to set up a time.
- In January 2022, the RRT will kick off our Strategic Planning process to further define the future direction of the RRT.

CAN Next Steps (Strategic Planning)

- CAN Winter Survey Update: please take the survey and encourage anyone in your organization to take it.
  - Using the survey responses to further define the strategy.
  - Closing the survey on December 31st
  - Full report out in advance of our January meeting

Campaign Updates

- Vaccine Education
  - Collaboration with Matt Krueter at Wash U
  - Feedback showed 1:1 conversations with trusted members was the best way to break the ice, rather than panels
  - Conduct focus groups with 3 area schools districts

- Medicaid Expansion
  - PrepareSTL Update
    - PrepareSTL is still here and regrouping
    - Medicaid expansion is allowing an additional 250,000 people have access healthcare
    - Next step is help people enroll because that is still a hurdle for some; answering people’s concerns
    - Jim Wallis offered that everyone working together to get everyone enrolled is the best strategy

- Unhoused
  - With temperatures dropping across the region, warming shelters are popping up
  - Infectious disease doctors are working on a proposal for respite shelters as we haven’t had one since the Salvation Army one. The doctors are looking to have shelters submit proposals for respite shelters
  - Within the unhoused population, what are the hesitancy? Do we have herd immunity? How do we provide adequate resources?

- Eviction Prevention
  - City and County submitted an RFP for ERAP 2. They will announcing the winning proposal in the second week of January 2022. Collaboration across jurisdiction is key.
RRT will assist with canvassing on this front.
  - Eviction prevention campaign will be expanding to include service providers in 2022
  - Partnership with the Housing Authority to be able to expand the conversation

- PPE
  - Next distribution event on Monday, December 13th. Partnering with WIN Warehouse to distribute 4 PPE items.

Guest Speaker

Jim Wallis, RRT Steering Committee member, Chestnut Health Systems

- Please see the flyer and Slidedeck from Jim and his team in the CAN email
- Collaboration between agencies for referrals has been key. Keeping things small at the start
  - How is this sustainable?
